

Bonne Année

A French Selection to enjoy over the Summer season

Simonnet Febvre 'Cremant de Bourgogne' @ $23.99

Traditional Champenoise grape varieties of Chardonnay and Pinot Noir make up this bargain bubbles from Burgundy (Chablis to be exact). Well structured, toasty and flavoursome, a must have in the 'beer fridge' for those impromptu celebrations.

Chateau Belingard Blanc 2008 @ $19.99

Bergerac in the south-west of France is the origin of this white. Full of thrilling, crisp Semillon and Sauvignon Blanc fruit. Racy, firm, a bit marmalady. Great with lots of things, and a crisp and tasty treat for the chef as dinner gets prepared

Metz 'Cuvee Anne-Laure' Pinot Gris @ $26.99

Pinot Gris from Alsace in the North-East corner of France. Soft, rich and smooth with pear and subtle spice flavours that will match wonderfully with summer picnics.

Le Jarras Rosé @ $19.99

a much maligned style of wine – until you try a good one! Great for when unexpected guests arrive – the perfect 'one-wine' for easy lunches and lazy afternoons. This beautifully onion-skin hued wine comes from the Camargue region in southern France

Chateau Triniac 2007 – Roussillon @ $19.99

Old vine Carignan, Syrah and Grenache from the south of France. Juicy and meaty, this is one of the easiest ways to 'flash up' your barbecue this summer!

Chateau Roques Mauriac Bordeaux 2005 @ $34.99

Cabernet/Merlot make up this 'claret' from Bordeaux. From one of the greatest vintages in recent times, this is robust, with all the hallmark descriptors – pencil shavings, cigar box, new leather and cassis.

Chateau Belingard Monbazillac @ $16.99 - 375mls

Botrytised Semillon, Sauvignon Blanc and Muscadelle (a la Sauternes) from within the Bergerac region in the south-west of France. Perfect with your favourite blue cheese.

May be purchased separately at the prices quoted, or as a set
(one of each of the seven wines) for $150.00
